Crayola Spin and Spiral Art Station

With the Crayola Spin and Spiral Art Station, kids can create spiralized art and spin art in a 2-in-1 kid-powered station. To create spiral art, kids can create endless combinations of colors and spiral outputs using Crayola markers in the included art gears. On the other side of the station, use the kid-powered pump to create splatter art with ink and paper discs.

The station includes the Spiral Art Station unit, three spiral “gears” for tracing, six pipsqueak markers, three ink bottles and 15 paper discs.

BENEFITS

- 2-in-1 Doubles the Fun: Kids can use both sides of the art station to create art in different ways
- Endless Colorful Possibilities: Using the including markers, inks and spiral stencils, kids can create thousands of different color and shape combinations
- Storage Solutions for Easy Cleanup: The unit is completely self-contained with storage spaces for the markers, ink and paper disks
